There are a lot of resources on the Internet for Hispanic Genealogy other than FamilySearch. The objective of this class is to get to know a few of those websites.

GENERAL RESOURCES

- Genealogy Groups and Forums on the Internet – There are a lot of different groups that you can find on Yahoo, Google, and Facebook. A Google search can help you find them. There is also a list in the FamilySearch Wiki article called “Grupos y foros de genealogía en el Internet”. You must use the Spanish version of the Wiki. To access the Spanish version go to https://familysearch.org/learn/wiki/en/Main_Page. At the bottom of the page click on “Español”.
- PARES Portal de Archivos Españoles <http://www.pares.mcu.es>
- Blogs – There is a list of blogs in the FamilySearch Wiki article called “Blogs de genealogía”. You must use the Spanish version of the Wiki.
